The Fonia.

The following joint resolution, introduced into the House of Representatives, by Mr. Delano, on Friday night, has passed both houses, and awaits the President's signature:

"Whereas this House has been informed that certain peaceable and law-abiding citizens, while assembled at and within the building recently erected in this city for the benefit of the orphans of deceased soldiers and sailors of the United States, situated on the corner of Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue, have been illegally and improperly dispersed by the Mayor of this city, for the alleged reason that they belonged to a Fenian organization, and thus prevented from exercising their rights and privileges as citizens of the United States; therefore, be it Resolved, &c., That said citizens are hereby authorized, whenever permitted so to do by the Speaker of this House, or the President of the Senate, to use and to occupy said building for the purpose of holding public meetings for every proper and lawful purpose, and particularly in reference to the liberation of Ireland."

Previous to the passage of this resolution by the Senate, Mr. Johnson, of Maryland, said: "He thought that the passage of this joint resolution would give England cause for complaint. Whether he had acted toward us in a proper spirit of neutrality was one question; whether we would preserve our neutrality by such actions as this was another question, which touched most deeply our national honor. All Europe was now convulsed in war, and he was unwilling that we should by any action, indicate our desire to participate in the struggle. Those who saw proper to seek a refuge here should in his opinion take no steps inconsistent with the laws of the country. We had happily emerged from a terrible struggle, not weakened by physical or moral strength, and it was a duty which we owed to ourselves to settle our own difficulties, and not to embroil ourselves with foreign nations. England with all her faults, and in his opinion they were many, was the only constitutional government on the face of the globe besides our own, and he should regard with especial distrust any attempt to revolutionize her government."

Scenes in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—Mayor Monroe has addressed a letter to Gen. Baird, informing him that he intended to disperse the members of the convention, which is to meet on the 30th instant, and arrest the members of it, unless they shall be protected by military authority. General Baird has replied that no protection has been asked, and ridicules the Mayor's proposition, saying that if it is a legal convention, it has the right to meet; if illegal it would be a harmless assembly. He concludes by saying: "I shall prevent all violence and will preserve order."

All the State officers have formally protested against the Governor's proclamation calling the convention, and the Secretary of State has refused to attach his seal.
After the adjournment of a meeting last night, the negroes formed in procession, and with clubs, bricks, etc., went howling through the streets, threatening violence. The result of the violent language used at this meeting was two or three serious disturbances and the killing of three negroes. Three police officers were badly bruised by the negroes. All is now quiet. Ten or fifteen negroes have been arrested and committed to jail. It is understood that the chief of police is making efforts to have the speakers who used the violent and incendiary language arrested, and that a committee of citizens will wait on Gen. Sheridan for that purpose.

RESIGNATION OF SECRETARY HARLAN.—The following is a copy of Secretary Harlan's letter to the President, resigning his position as Secretary of the Interior:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 27, 1866.

To the President:
Having heretofore informed you of my readiness to withdraw from the Cabinet when it might accord with your pleasure and convenience to name my successor and in pursuance of an understanding arrived at in a recent interview, I hereby tender my resignation of the office of Secretary of the Interior, to take effect on the first day of September next.

In thus severing my official connection with your administration, I would do injustice to my own feelings were I not to present my sincere thanks for the uniform courtesy and kindness shown me by you during my term of service.

Praying that the Supreme Ruler of nations may bless you with health and vigor to endure the arduous labors incident to your high position, and wisdom to carry into effect such wise measures of policy as Congress may devise, to secure domestic peace and national unity.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, your obedient servant, JAS. HARLAN.

RESUMPTION OF BUSINESS.
STOVES, OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS,
TIN WARE, ROOFING, SPOUTING, &c.

ENOCH GRIMES,
having determined to resume his former business in Alexandria, respectfully announces to the public, that he has opened his establishment at below Fairfax, on the north side, where he is prepared to furnish the public, with every description of articles in his line, which may be wanted. His assortment of COOKING STOVES, will embrace every variety, and of the best descriptions. He would enumerate; among them, Noble Oak Stove, the best that was ever in use, and well deserving its name—the Lily, the PALMETTO, and others.

His TIN WARE will be found equal, if not superior, to any ever offered for sale in Alexandria, and housekeepers can have any description of ware of that kind, which they may need.
He invites an examination of his goods, and presents such a selection as cannot fail to please.
All kinds of ROOFING and SPOUTING, executed in the best manner, and on the lowest terms.

An experience of forty years in this business, enables him to claim that he has a practical knowledge of it, in all its branches. He is desirous of not only accommodating, but giving satisfaction to his customers, and to all purchasers, and they may be assured that what he sells them will be of the best materials and of the best manufacture. He will warrant whatever he sells. It will be his object to secure patronage by constant and personal attention to his establishment.

With this announcement he will open his Manufactory, willing to show by his efforts that the patronage he asks, will redound to the advantage of those who buy, as well as of himself, and that the citizens of Alexandria and its vicinity, need not go elsewhere to purchase what can be procured in their own city, from one of their own people. jy 12-2awtf

GUANO—KEED'S AMMONIATED SU-PERPHOSPHATE OF LIME.—The best superphosphate yet offered to the farmer, possessing all the activity of Peruvian Guano, but being far more durable in its effects.

It contains a large amount of animal matter in a highly concentrated form, which, combined with its soluble bone phosphate of lime, cannot fail to render it very valuable as a fertilizer.
Notwithstanding we believe it to be the best super-phosphate in the market, yet, by a process peculiar in its manufacture, whereby the expenses are lessened, we are enabled to sell it very low, with a liberal discount to dealers.

THE GREAT VIRGINIA REMEDY.

Chickahominy Bitters perform more cures, quent attacks of Chills and Fever, have been perfectly restored to health in a few days, by ters.

Thousands who have used them need no fur-upon the human system is to produce loss of appetite, debility, and general prostration of all the vital energies. By the use of Chickahominy Bitters perfect health is restored in a few weeks.

A MODERN MIRACLE!

From old and young, from rich and poor, from high-born and lowly, comes the Universal Voice of Praise for HALL'S VEGETABLE

SCALP HAIR RENEWER.
It is a perfect and miraculous article. Cures baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum." Softens brash, dry and wiry hair into beautiful silken tresses.
But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

Use it a few times, and PRESTO, CHANGE!
the whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

It will not take a long disagreeable trial to prove the truth of this matter. The first application will do good; you will see the natural color returning every day, and before you know it, the old gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.

Ask for Hall's Scallp Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect. You will find it cheap to buy, pleasant to try, and sure to do you good.

There are many imitations. Be sure you procure the genuine, manufactured only by
